Dear Professor Cassill:

Thank you for your letter of February 25, 1982.

I quite understand your frustration and concern and appreciate your sending me the copy of my letter to you sometime ago. You might wish to express your views on the Endowment's Literature Program directly to its new Director, Frank Conroy. Very often policy changes occur as the result of a new administration taking over the program.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
